

NUNEATON & NORTH WARWICKSHIRE FAMILY HISTORY SOCIETY

Come Along to a Meeting!

At the Baptist Church Hall, The Green, Attleborough CV11 4JZ
(unless otherwise) Tuesdays: doors open 7.15pm – speakers start 7.30pm prompt
Church car park is in Freer Street with gate directly to Church Hall entrance

2017

- 10 Jan Welcome the New Year: social evening including some views to identify plus family history quiz!! Bring along a plate of nibbles for sharing. Come and enjoy.
- 14 Feb Edwardian Photographers – David Fry returns to explore their work with images from around the area. Another enjoyable evening spotting known places or faces.
- 14 Mar Research & Help Session: Back to Basics: starting a tree. Let's look at ways of recording information and share our experiences. Plus cuppa and a chat!
- 6-8 Apr Who Do You Think You Are? Live: NEC, Birmingham: visit the NNWFHS stand!
- 11 Apr Let's look at your old photographs! – David Alton & Graham Bandy will help to identify and date your images. If you have any military artefacts bring these too!
- 9 May Tinker, tailor, soldier, spy...family history and trade unions - Helen Ford from the Modern Records Centre will demonstrate the MRC resources for family historians.
- 3 Jun [Saturday] Chesterfield FHS Fair, Chesterfield FC Proact Stadium, S41 8NZ
- 13 Jun Research & Help Session: Centenary of battle of Messines Ridge - the War Memorials Project on the website: Celia Parton. Plus cuppa and a chat!
- 24 Jun [Saturday] Yorkshire Family History Fair – York Racecourse
- 11 Jul Victorian Village Life - Anne Langley, author and local historian will give an illustrated talk describing real life as it then was.
- 8 Aug In Sickness & In Health – Carole Haines will lead us through personal health & hygiene plus some weird remedies experienced by our forebears through the ages.
- 12 Sep Research & Help Session: Irish Connections? As more information is made available online, can we crack Irish brickwalls? Plus cuppa and a chat!
- 7 Oct [Saturday] Oxfordshire FHS Fair, MEC, Woodstock, Oxon, OX20 1LP
- 10 Oct The Poor Laws – using local examples, Margaret Henley will explore how the poor were treated from the Reformation to the New Poor Law of 1834.
- 14 Nov AGM followed by John Burton: Revd Nicholas Chamberlaine and his Bedworth charities – including the almshouses

No meeting in December

All are welcome to meetings:

admission £2.50 members / £4.00 for non-members includes refreshments
Family History Help Desks are held in several Libraries – details on website

See website for further information: www.nnwfhs.org.uk
NNWFHS is a member of the Federation of Family History Societies